From:	Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To:	ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date:	Fri, 9/6/2013 3:29:35 PM
Subject:	US Morning Headlines: G20 â€˜split down the middleâ€™ on Syria, Optimism grows...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Friday September 06 2013

US HOMEPAGE

G20 ‘split down the middle’ on Syria

Although Barack Obama’s stance won backing from UK, France, Canada and Turkey, other G20 countries are more reticent about backing military strikes

Optimism grows for developed economies

Snowden lifts veil on code-breaking

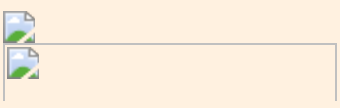
Apple probes conditions at China factory

Stocks mixed ahead of US jobs data

VIDEO

Ryanair: flying low

Shares in Ryanair, Europe's leading budget airline, dipped after it warned profits may be at the low end of guidance. Lex's Stuart Kirk and Nikki Tait discuss what is behind the turbulence and how Michael O'Leary, chief executive, plans to remedy this



MARKETS

China reopens bond futures market

The resumption of trading in government bond futures, after an 18-year ban, is an important step in the liberalisation of China's financial markets

Ringgit falls as Malaysia surplus narrows

FTSE eases as US jobs signal awaited

Huge Verizon bond tests debt appetite

China's stimulus has more to show than US

WORLD NEWS

Obama struggles to build case for action

Hawkish rhetoric from some officials such as US secretary of state John Kerry has so far failed to address scepticism in Congress over military strikes

Hollande fails to corral European leaders

Somalia moves to discredit UN report

Fed frontrunner Summers faces his past

Family sues over Pinochet era murder

US NEWS

'Looming sea level crisis' faces US

Study shows that human-made global warming was a factor in at least six intense weather events last year, from hurricanes to Arctic melting

Sugar mountain lands on US government

G20 grapples with US policy fallout

Spooks need new ways to keep secrets

Ford says US car sales to hit 17m

US & CANADIAN COMPANIES

Timken decision to split cheers activists

Timken, with a market capitalisation of about $5.6bn, will spin off its steel business to focus on bearings and power transmission

Usmanov's Mail.ru cashes in on Facebook recovery

Mayer criticised as Yahoo logo falls flat

Settlement in insider trading case

HotelTonight finds room for $45m

Manage email | Forward this email | Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.